

Appointment of a registered migration agent, legal practitioner or exempt person

956

Who should use this form?

This form can only be used by:

- · a registered migration agent
- a legal practitioner; or
- · an exempt person.

This form should be used to notify the Department of Home Affairs (the Department) that:

- you have been appointed by a client (eg. a visa applicant) to provide immigration assistance under the Migration Act 1958 and, if applicable, to receive documents on their behalf; or
- your appointment has ended (You may notify the Department of this in writing if you prefer).

A separate form 956 Appointment of a registered migration agent, legal practitioner or exempt person must be completed for each matter.

Where your appointment has ended, this form can also be used to notify the Department of the withdrawal of your appointment as an authorised recipient. Your client is required to complete the declaration on Page 6 to confirm that the withdrawal is being done with the client's authority. (Your client may also notify the Department of the withdrawal of your appointment as an authorised recipient in writing if they prefer or by completing form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient).

Dependent applicants

All persons listed on this form will be considered to have appointed the same person to provide immigration assistance and as authorised recipient where indicated.

Do not use this form if you have only been appointed as a person who is authorised to receive documents, on another person's behalf, that the Department would otherwise give to them.

In this case, please use form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

What is immigration assistance?

A person gives immigration assistance if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist a person with matters related under the Migration Act 1958.

The most common times assistance is provided is during visa application processes, visa cancellation processes or sponsorship processes (including monitoring or sanctions).

Note: Immigration assistance does not include simply filling in an application form, translating or interpreting or passing on information about an application without comment or explanation.

Registered migration agents

A registered migration agent is a person who is registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (OMARA) to provide immigration assistance.

If operating in Australia, migration agents must be registered with the OMARA.

Information on registered migration agents, including how to find one, is available on the OMARA website www.mara.gov.au

Legal practitioners

A legal practitioner is a lawyer who holds an Australian legal practising certificate (whether restricted or unrestricted) granted under a law of an Australian state or territory.

Legal practitioners can provide immigration assistance in connection with legal practice.

Information on legal practitioners, including how to find one, is available on the Law Council of Australia website.

Information on legal practitioners can also be sought from the relevant state or territory legal professional bodies.

Immigration Advice and Assistance Scheme (IAAAS)

If you are a registered migration agent or legal practitioner who is assisting a client under this scheme, please indicate this on the form at Question 8.

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent or legal practitioner in order to provide immigration assistance:

- a close family member (spouse, child, adopted child, parent, brother or sister of a visa applicant);
- a sponsor or nominator for a visa applicant;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official appointed or engaged under the Public Service Act 1999 or a member of the public service of a state or territory giving immigration assistance as part of their duties;
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

As an exempt person you must not charge a fee for your assistance. In Australia, if you do charge a fee you are committing an offence and penalties of up to 10 years jail can apply.

Authorised recipient

You can be appointed as an authorised recipient to receive documents on behalf of another person relating to their visa matter, but you must not provide immigration assistance unless you are also a registered migration agent, legal practitioner or exempt person.

When an authorised recipient is appointed, the Department will:

- send all written communication about the visa matter to the authorised recipient
- deem written communication to be received by the person for whom the authorised recipient has been appointed.

You should be aware that the documents sent to your authorised recipient might include sensitive information about matters such as your health and character.

Ending authorised recipient appointment

In many cases the person who has been appointed to provide immigration assistance has also been appointed as the client's authorised recipient. Parts B and C of this form can be used to advise the Department that the client has withdrawn the appointment of an authorised recipient.

Alternatively the client can notify the Department in writing of the withdrawal of an authorised recipient, or complete form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Consent to communicate electronically

The Department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the Department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the Department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the Department over the internet or by other electronic means.

Important information about privacy

The Privacy Act 1988 contains 13 Australian Privacy Principles which regulate the way that the Department collects and handles personal information. Information about how the Department collects, uses and discloses personal information for its key functions can be found in form 1442i Privacy notice. More information about the Department's general information handling practices (including form 1442i) can be found in the Department's Privacy policy at
